

RAJAN AILAVADI (MR.)

Rajan is a proficient patent attorney with over 13 years of research and legal experience dealing with technology and intellectual property matters. Apart from attending International Intellectual Property conferences and being an invited speaker at various forum like ASPI, France; South-East Asia Exchange Summit, Singapore; client requests in Japan, he has handled extensive client discussions in India, Japan and other countries advising clients on the nuances of Indian patent prosecution and enforcement of IP rights.

He has successfully handled numerous patent matters (prosecution as well as opposition) of several International Companies in their Mechanical, Electrical, Electronics & Telecommunication field.

Rajan has worked in various Research Institute of International repute eg., State Universities and Indian Institute of Technology, Kharagpur, India. He was associated with one of the oldest and largest IP law firm in the India, as Managing Associate, before establishing and pursuing his entrepreneurial venture CIP LEGIT.

Rajan received his Bachelors of Laws from University of Delhi, India and his Senior Management Programme [SMP] from Indian Institute of Management Calcutta, India. He also holds Bachelor of Technology and Masters of Technology with focus on Mechanical Engineering. He is admitted to practice before the Patent Office, Trade Marks Registry, & Intellectual Property Appellate Board, as well as Courts in India.